SUPERINTENDENT

MESSAGE

If any single event marks your entrance into the adult world, it is your graduation from high school. Until now you have been guided, counseled, advised and perhaps been controlled a little more than you thought necessary. But whatever path you take from now on, you will be a great deal more on your own than you ever have been in your life. You will face a great many more decisions alone, and you will be responsible for the results of these decisions.

The course of your life will be very much determined by what you do and the decisions you make.

With all respect to your parents and teachers who may have scolded you to quit daydreaming and get to work, I give my advice. Find a dream. But not an idle dream built only of romance and adventure. Imagine a dream with a realistic goal that will build a fire within you. . . . A dream that will create the steam to drive you ahead, to sustain you over the rough spots in life. . . . A dream that will let you fall in love with something important. When you have this dream fixed clearly in your mind, you have taken the first step toward coping successfully with the world.

ACTIVITIES

DARK FOREST

Rewarding the Juniors for their many hours of strenuous work and planning was a night to be remembered and talked about long afterwards.

Under a sky of hundreds of stars were many romantic as well as breath-taking scenes--a stone wall was the background for several candlelite tables where punch was served from an old-fashioned wishing well--a woodland scene enclosed a mural painting of a waterfall forming a stream which flowed under a wooden bridge--the center of the crowning area was a vine-covered swing under a cluster of pine boughs. Depicting a forest scene in the center of the dancing floor and used throughout the gym were many pine trees which were all donated by Mrs. Irene Kovars of Blue River.

Assisting the Juniors with all decorating were their able advisers, Mrs. Ellen Eaton and Mr. Richard Martin.

Chaperoning the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson.

Providing the music for many hours of dancing were "The Blue Knights".

COURT OF HONOR

ORGANIZATIONS

REPRESENTING THE STUDENT BODY

SEATED: Vada Anderson, Gary Stadele, Sandi Dersch, Peggy Clark. STANDING: Phyllis Steiner, Sharon Hennessey, Steve Fauver, Mr. Isenhardt, Ron Goplin, Greg Daugherty.

Our President, Sandi Dersch, enjoying the Student Council sponsored Christmas party.

The student governing body, one of the major organizations of any school, has the responsibility of approving and regulating school activities, informing the administration of the student wishes, promoting good citizenship, and improving student-teacher relation.

In May, of the preceding year, Sandi Dersch was elected council president, as were the other members who include the four class presidents and a representative from each class. Within the eight members, a vice-president, secretary, and treasurer are elected.

Regular council meetings are held every other week, and if necessary, special meetings are called during the week.

Homecoming weekend found the student council busy working in the gym decorating "Autumn Leaves" for the annual Homecoming and Fair Dance.

Cheerleading tryouts, Christmas party, and student elections in the spring are also planned and supervised by the Student Council.

The council sponsored "The Pioneer Statesmen," a group of four boys from Platteville, and other school activities throughout the year.
